

The Nature of New York: A Watercolor Exhibit

Saturday, May 4 at 3:30pm

Participants in our Watercolor in the City class have been hard at work learning the techniques of watercolor painting and will proudly be displaying their work at this culminating event.

All are welcome to attend and see what they have created, inspired by the city around them!

Nick Golebiewski

The class was taught by Nick Golebiewski.
The exhibit will be held in the first floor Willa Cather room.
Light refreshments will be served.
